The historic house is open Wednesday-Sunday, 10:00am-5:00pm. For more information or to register, please call (857) 399-1225 or email roxbury.heritage@mass.gov.

Wednesday-Sunday

Dillaway-Thomas House Self-Guided Tours 10:00am—5:00pm

This colonial-era house was built in 1750 as the parsonage for the First Church of Roxbury. Inside the house an interactive exhibit and artifacts tell the story of Roxbury's evolution over three centuries. Appropriate for ages 10 and above.

Thursday-Sunday

Dillaway-Thomas House Guided Tours: One Roxbury, Many Stories

Thurs-Sat 3:00pm | Sun 11:00am

This 60-minute tour highlights events, people and objects from the exhibit that tell stories of economic, political and cultural change in Roxbury, from Puritan town to the heart of Boston's Black community. Appropriate for ages 12 and above. Please contact us to schedule group tours.

Fridays,
Saturdays, and Sundays

Walking Tour: Preserving an Inclusive History Fri, Sat 10:00am—12:00pm | Sun 2:00—4:00pm

Join us for a one-mile walking tour of the Highland Park neighborhood of Roxbury, as we reveal stories of resilience, community-building, and cultural identity in the 1970s, layered into buildings from the 1800s. Meet at Roxbury Heritage State Park. Advanced registration preferred, but not required. Appropriate for ages 12 and above.
